COMBINE DRIVES FOR COMMUNITY WELFARE IN DIXON

Goodfellows And Salvation Army To Join Efforts June 8-13

The annual Salvation Army campaign in Dixon will start June 8 and continue through until June 13, it was decided at a meeting held last evening at the Chamber of Commerce offices. The goal set for Dixon is $5,000 which is to be subscribed in the one-week drive. This represents the combined campaign for the Dixon Welfare Association and the Salvation Army and will be conducted under the chairmanship of William F. Hogan, who has been named campaign chairman. The sum is to be divided four-fifths to the Welfare association and one-fifth to the Salvation Army.

This decision was reached at the meeting which was attended by twenty civic leaders. The report of the work done by the Goodfellow club in Dixon and vicinity was submitted and proved very interesting. The Goodfellow club has been in active charge of the welfare work during the past winter months. The Goodfellows reported that almost a hundred families were being cared for at the present time and were dependent upon the Welfare program for the necessities of life. The report disclosed the fact that no immediate improvement was in prospect, and also that they have reached the end of the finances. It is estimated that $100 weekly will be required, exclusive of donations of produce, to carry on the work.

Work is Enormous.

M. G. Killett, field director of the Salvation Army, was present at the meeting and told of the tremendous task the Salvation Army has undertaken in providing lodging and food for thousands of men who, leaving families behind them, had set out in the search of employment. In Chicago alone, he stated, between four and five thousand such cases had been cared for each night between November of last year and March of this year. Of this number, 1,600 men had found positions and had received 100,000 garments and 7,107 pairs of shoes had been distributed.

As the date for the Salvation Army annual appeal in Dixon has been held in June each year, it was decided to combine the two efforts and distribute the funds as provided. An executive committee selected which consists of the following members:

Decatur Fugitive

Surrenders Today

Sigourney, Ia., June 4—(AP)—Raymond Mulligan, 35, Decatur, Ill., was held here today awaiting officers to take him to Decatur where he faces charges of robbery, robbery with a deadly weapon and assault with intent to kill. The last charge, authorities said, resulted from an alleged gun battle with police several years ago.

Mulligan entered a cafe here yesterday and asked that the Sheriff be summoned. Sheriff H. A. Beasley said Mulligan confessed and his story later checked with Decatur police records.

Mrs. Edna E. Geiser Died Wednesday P.M.

Mrs. Edna E. Geiser passed away yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at her home, 920 University Place. Funeral services will be conducted from the Preston chapel Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Paul Gordon officiating and with interment in Oakwood. The obituary will be published later.

Government Issue Is Oversubscribed

Washington, June 4—(UP)—The $600,000,000 bond issue announced by Secretary Mellon Monday was oversubscribed more than seven times when the books closed last night with total subscriptions of $6,000,000,000.

Oddities in the NEWS

TIMELY INFORMATION

Evanston, Ill., June 4—(UP)—Classes in the theory of automobile driving, conducted by the Evanston police department were attended by 288 women. All took examinations at the end of the course, passing grades were given 188. Of the 100 who failed, some answered questions as follows:

Q. What is the best way to pass a street car when in a hurry? A. On the left of it.

Q. What is the most important part of the ignition system? A. The speedometer.

Q. What would you do if the oil gauge read zero? A. Pour water in the radiator.

Q. What parts of the automobile should be lubricated? A. The brakes, the lights and the wheelbase.

BUSINESS LOOKS UP

Chicago, June 4—(AP)—The coffers of the marriage license bureau will grow considerably if Bezenik Karezbaum, 72, keeps this up.

Monday he appeared at the bureau, slapped two dollars down on the counter and got the state's permission to marry Pearl Goldman 60, a widow.

"Yesterday Karezbaum was back."

"And what now?" asked the clerk.

"Another license please," said Karezbaum as he dug down in his pockets for another license, this time to marry another widow, Eva Chubin, 58.

"What's the matter with your first girl?" inquired the surprised clerk.

"She changed her mind," said Karezbaum.

SIGNS ONE CHECK

Washington, June 4—(AP)—Walter O. Woods, Treasurer of the United States, signs just one government check a month. It's President Hoover's pay check.

Although directly holding the purse strings in business involving more than 3 billion dollars annually, quiet Mr. Woods actually applies his pen only on this draft for $6,350 toward the $75,000 yearly salary of the President.

He does have his name on federal paper money, however. His signature is to be seen on the lower left side of the front of each bill. That of his chief Secretary Mellon, is on the right.

Another duty of the Treasurer is supervision of the daily statement on governmental finances. This shows the condition of the treasury and expenditures by the month and year to date, and gives comparisons with the same periods in the previous year.

FAITH MISPLACED

Chicago, June 4—AP—About a year ago Motorcycle Policeman Anthony Snyder was touched by the hard luck story of Harry Sperling so he took him to his home and got him a job with an undertaker.

The undertaker's safe was subsequently robbed of $800. He suspected Sperling, but Policeman Snyder doubted his guilt. That night, however, Policeman Snyder noticed a bulge under the seat of his automobile. Investigation revealed the $800 and Sperling was sent to jail.

Sperling was freed from jail several months ago and Anthony decided to give him another chance. So he took him into his home again. A toy bank, belonging to Anthony's son, containing a small sum, disappeared. So did Sperling. That was six weeks ago.

Last night Anthony's motorcycle broke down. A crowd gathered. Glancing up he saw Sperling.

Anthony quickly arrested his old friend.

In Sperling's room police said they found the toy bank—empty.

Under plans for government control of radio broadcasting the 23 radio stations now operating in France will be reduced to 15, of sufficient power to adequately cover the country.

FLESH TORN FROM YOUNG MAN'S ARM WHEN SEDAN CRASHED INTO A TRUCK ON LOWELL PARK HIGHWAY

Everett "Bud" Lightner, 16-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Lightner, 416 East Bradshaw street, was the victim of a painful and unusual accident last evening shortly after six o'clock. The young man, who is a popular member of the Dixon Junior American Legion baseball team was returning home with four other friends from a picnic party of high school students at Lowell park and was seated between two companions in the rear seat of a sedan driven by Donald Lepley.

A short distance south of the Illinois Central crossing and almost in front of the Roberts farm home, a truck ahead of them turned sudden-

HOOVER ALTERS ITINERARY FOR WESTERN JAUNT

Will Visit Territory Seldom Gone Into By Executives

Washington, June 4—(UP)—President Hoover has decided to take a new route west on his three-day speaking trip beginning June 15, it was learned today at the White House.

He has accepted a longer railroad run to his first stop, Indianapolis, in order that he may see the people of a territory seldom entered by a President—Kentucky and West Virginia. He also will go through Virginia. Under this arrangement he will touch eight states and speak in three.

Ordinarily, on trips west, Presidents have gone by direct routes through Maryland, Pennsylvania and Ohio. The new route will take the executive through Charlottesville, Va., Huntington and Charleston, West Virginia, several small towns in Kentucky, and Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. Hoover virtually has concluded the three speeches he will deliver at the Indiana Republican Editors Association, Indianapolis; dedication of the Harding Memorial, June 16, at Marion, Ohio; and re-dedication of the Lincoln Memorial, June 17, at Springfield, Ill.

Tentative plans call for much travelling during daylight hours. This also is being arranged to permit the Executive to see and be seen by as many people as possible. He expects to remain overnight at Indianapolis in order that he may make the trip to Columbus, Ohio, the morning of June 16. He will review the encampment of the G. A. R. there before boarding his train again for an hour's ride to Marion. The jump to Springfield will be an overnight journey. The return trip to Washington will require an entire day and night.

Chicago Veteran Is Commander Of G.A.R.

Aurora, Ill., June 4—(AP)—J. H. Campbell, 86 Commander of the George E. Meade Post of Chicago, was elected Commander of the Illinois Department of the Grand Army of the Republic today.

The annual encampment drew to a close with a parade of 150 Union veterans this afternoon.

Campbell, a controversial figure in the Illinois Department, defeated H. C. First of Rock Island, Jess W. Norris of Litchfield, and Dr. Charles O. Brown of Chicago.

Other officers elected were Gerry Walker, Aurora, Senior Vice-Commander; John H. Cummings, Chicago Junior Vice-Commander; J. H. Crowder, Bethany, Chaplain; John E. Andrews, Quincy, William P. Wright, Chicago, D. C. Zimmerman, Vandala, H. B. Davidson, Springfield, and Lewis F. Lake, Rockford, Council of Administration.

Wright was re-elected trustee. No longer will posts be required to surrender their charters when their memberships drop to less than four. It was announced that a post may keep its identity as long as one member is alive. He will hold all the offices. Shiloh Post at Lanark Nauvoo Post at Nauvoo and Dwight Post at Dwight have only one member each.

Three Thugs Win In Supreme Court

Springfield, Ill., June 4—(AP)—George "Red" Barker, gangster was definitely ordered released from prison, and James "Red" Forsythe and Simon Gorman, also gangsters, were assured new trials, by action of the Supreme Court today in denying the state rehearing of the cases against them.

Barker's case attracted wide attention due to the fact he was sentenced to the state reformatory by a Cook county judge, and ordered released by a Peoria county judge. In the drive against gangsters last year, he was arrested for leaving the state while on parole, and was reimprisoned to serve the balance of a ten year sentence for the theft of an automobile.

Forsythe and Gorman were given one year jail sentences and fined $200 for gun totting.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION NOW ALMOST ASSURED

House To Make Senate's Bill For Such Special Business

Springfield, Ill., June 4—(AP)—Prospects of a constitutional convention brightened today when the House received a favorable report on the Senate bill to submit the call to a vote of the electorate and made it a special order of business for next Tuesday.

Debate on the proposed income tax bill which was killed in the House yesterday crystallized sentiment for a complete rewriting of Illinois' constitution. Both proponents of the income tax and the Chicagoans who spoke against it referred to the state-mandated real trouble with Illinois finances and taxing lies in the antiquated revenue section of the constitution.

Devine Bill Passed.

Groundwork for complete revision of the corporation laws of the state was laid by the House when it passed a bill introduced by John P. Devine, Democrat, Dixon, creating a commission of eight members of the House and Senate and seven appointees of the Governor to revise the law and report to the next General Assembly.

The bill was passed 90 to 14 over the objection of A. B. Lager, Democrat, Carlyle, who argued that the fundamental corporation laws of the state should not be radically changed but changes should be made section by section so that gradual revision would be effected, thus enabling corporation business to keep pace with the law.

Representative Devine had previously failed to secure passage of a bill which would have revised the existing laws. This bill was sent to a sub-committee of the House Judiciary where it died and in its place arose the commission bill passed today.

To Follow Proposed Law.

Devine indicated the commission might follow very closely the revisions outlined in his bill. He said he had no fear that the Senate would not pass the commission bill before adjournment and that the approval of the Executive would not be given it.

Representative Lager said this bill was merely another commission, and by way of answer Devine charged the law needs revision because the present Secretary of State has a "meddling official employed by him who is trying to make himself important." "I am quite sure this committee will not report something wrong," he added.

The Burnes bill prohibiting the bribing of voters by money or any commodity in behalf of any candidate was passed by the House.

MOTORIST BURNS TO DEATH

Galesburg, Ill., June 4—(AP)—Bert Johnson 41, Lynn Center, Ill., farmer, was found burned to death on Highway 34, west of here, last night. The machine had crashed into a telegraph pole, turned over, and caught fire. A widow and two children survive.

WEATHER

Chicago, June 4—(AP)—Back in 1915 when the steamer Eastland turned over in the Chicago river and cost the lives of 812 one of the first to the scene was John Siewek, an acetylene torch expert who cut a hole in the side of the vessel and liberated more than 100 persons.

Then the city hailed him as a hero. Today he is legally insane, an inmate of the state hospital for the insane at Kankakee.

This was revealed with the filing of a suit for a writ of habeas corpus by Siewek's nephew, John Perry, who claimed that the hero was "railroaded" by his estranged wife, Catherine. Mrs. Siewek said her husband chased her with a razor when he was drunk. Perry's petition admitted Siewek was a chronic alcoholic, but denied he was insane.

Want Ad Wooser And Slayer In Chicago

Chicago, June 4—(AP)—George (Jiggs) Perry want-ad wooser and bigamist, arrived here today in custody of four police officers and was started immediately by automobile to Eagle River, Wis., where he is wanted for the murder of Cora Belle Hackett, one of his wives.

Perry, after a nation wide search, was apprehended two weeks ago in California.

AGED MAN SUICIDES

Kewanee, Ill., June 4—(AP)—Edward Van Cauwenbergh, 76, retired farmer of Sheffield, hanged himself in his barn yesterday. He had worried over the illness of his daughter, Mrs. Louise Van Vooren, at Walnut Grove, Minn. A widow and eight children survive.

SEVEN OF NINE U. S. PLAYERS IN BRITISH FINALS

Argentine And British Stars Lead Parade In Second Round

By VIRGIL PINKLEY

United Press Staff Correspondent

Carnoustie, Scotland, June 4—(UP)—Seven of the nine United States players in the British open championship qualified today for the final 36-hole chase which will be held tomorrow.

The two players not qualifying were Joe Turnesa and Tony Manero, both of Elmsford, N. Y. Turnesa had an aggregate of 160, having scored an 83 today. Manero scored 80 today and had a total of 162.

The 60 low-scoring players and ties will compete in the two 18-hole tests. Friday. All players above 159 did not qualify.

At the head of the procession will be the Argentine, Joe Jurado, and Henry Cotton, young British hope. They were tied for low aggregate after today's second rounds were complete. Each had a total of 147. Jurado broke Carnoustie's par of 72 and equalled MacDonald Smith's score record in scoring a 71 today, while Cotton, one of the three leaders in the first round, had a 75 today.

Close on the heels of the leaders was Tommy Armour of Detroit, who scored a 75 today for an aggregate of 148.

Johnny Farrell of New York, former U. S. open champion, who was tied with Cotton in yesterday's round, slipped back a bit today and scored a 77. His aggregate was 149.

Joe Kirkwood and Gene Sarazen, both of New York, were in the next division, with aggregates of 150. Kirkwood scored a 75 today, and Sarazen a 76.

Willie Hunter of Los Angeles had 76-75-157, and MacDonald Smith, New York, had 75-77-152. Horton Smith Cragston, N. Y. was back a bit with 77-79-156.

All of the British Ryder Cup players came through the two rounds safely.

W. T. Twine British pro who tied with Farrell and Cotton yesterday, scored a 78 today for an aggregate of 150.

PRISON REFORMS ADVOCATED TODAY BY INVESTIGATORS

House Committee's Report On All State Prisons Is Made

Springfield, Ill., June 4—(AP)—Segregation and removal of older criminals from the St. Charles School for Boys, was recommended to the House of Representatives today in the report of Harry M. McCaskrin, I.-Republican, Rock Island, chairman of the committee on prisons.

"Many inmates at St. Charles," the report said, "are older than should be allowed to associate with boy criminals of tender years."

The report, in which all members of the committee concurred, dealt with problems at all state prisons. Besides the chairman, members of the committee are Gordon W. Childers, Robert Whitely, Michael E. Bray and F. J. Breen.

Recommendations include the following:

Abolition of handcuffing in solitary punishment.

Additional employment for convicts as provided in bills offered by Senator Barr and Representative Childers.

New cells house, new hospital and sewage disposal plant at Illinois state penitentiary at Joliet, as provided in pending bills.

An eight hour work day for guards and increased pay based on conduct, ability, capacity and work.

A concrete road connecting the two prisons and prison grounds with city pavements at Menard and Chester.

Centralization of execution of all capital punishment sentences at Chester.

More adequate room, new buildings and hospital conveniences at Chester.

More fireproof cell houses at Chester Hospital for the Criminal Insane. Segregation of violent insane at Chester.

Transfer of all women prisoners from Joliet to Dwight reformatory. Employment for all inmates at Pontiac reformatory.

Complete investigation of probation, parole and pardon laws. Uniform parole laws.

Conditional pardons for men, detained for robbery with a gun, while the sentence was 10 years to life, and who are not eligible to parole until the 10 year period expires.

Well-guarded use of conditional pardons to eliminate discontent among convicts, insofar as possible. The committee commended wardens of all state penal institutions.

Dr. Rongetti Must Serve Prison Term

Springfield, Ill., June 4—(AP)—Dr. Amente Rongetti, Chicago, convicted of murder, but that conviction was set aside in October, 1929, and a new trial ordered.

Rongetti was originally convicted of murder, but that conviction was set aside in October, 1929, and a new trial ordered.

Manslaughter was the charge he was convicted on the second time, but that was reversed and remanded for retrial in February 1930. The third trial resulted in a manslaughter conviction, which withstood appeal, and which today was made certain.

It was the death of Loretta J. Enders of Chicago, for which Rongetti must serve a prison sentence.

BATTLE IS RESUMED

Belo, Mo., June 4—(AP)—Police Chief E. P. Lemphear had orders today from the Secretary of State to arrest all commercial drivers who enter Wisconsin from other states without Wisconsin license plates.

Authorities said they believed that any arrests made would reopen the Illinois-Wisconsin "border war" in which several Wisconsin drivers who have entered Illinois without Illinois plates, have already been arrested.

Great Britain and Germany have installed two more circuits from London to Berlin and Cologne, on account of increasing telephone traffic.

FUGITIVE RETURNS TO PRISON AFTER 38 YEARS OF FREEDOM TO SERVE OUT SEVEN MONTHS OF 2-YEAR "STRETCH"

Lincoln, Neb., June 4—(AP)—Thirty-eight years ago a young man went over the wall of the Nebraska state penitentiary to freedom.

Today the same man, now a 66-year-old granifather, was back inside the walls of the state prison having voluntarily surrendered in order, he said, to keep a promise "made to his maker."

Charles E. Johnson is the man. He walked approximately ninety miles from his former home in Oakland, Neb., to serve out seven months of a two-year term on a charge of robbery.

His return, after wandering for 38 years over the globe, was made, he

TAR KETTLE AFIRE

The tar kettle which Superintendent of Streets Ura Kime is using on north side streets in repair work, caught fire this morning about 9:30, necessitating the services of the fire department for the second time this week. Tuesday night red lanterns which were hanging on the tar kettle were taken and the police are conducting an investigation.

HEADS OGLE CO. BUREAU

Frank B. Wilson, who resides north of Woodstock on state highway route 28 and is well known in Dixon, was elected president of the Ogle county farm bureau at the annual meeting held at Oregon Tuesday afternoon. Other officers elected were: W. W. Crill, Monroe Center, vice president; J. W. Robbins, Mt. Morris secretary and treasurer. Mr. Wilson has been very active in Ogle County Farm Bureau circles for a number of years.

Goodwin 2 years; William G. Ford, 1 year.

Graduation Day At Military Academy

Annapolis, Md., June 4—(AP)—Assistant Navy Secretary Janhncke today told members of the Naval Academy graduating class they were to become America's emissaries of trade and good will.

He reminded the embryo officers that more and more the nation's sea forces were being called upon to render peace time service to their own country and to other peoples.

"You are the contact men between the United States and foreign countries," Janhncke said. "You are the advance agents of good will and trade and should leave with the foreign people whom you visit, not only a knowledge of our American institutions and ideals, but also a knowledge of the goods we produce and of our facilities to deliver them."

Asserting that navigation, gunnery and engineering are workaday things to the naval officer, the Assistant Secretary said the Navy perhaps more than any other American establishment, daily mixes with "all the fruits of human philosophy."

"When disaster of a convulsion of nature distresses a friendly people it is the naval officer who most frequently extends help to the suffering."

The State Department said should Lindbergh find it necessary to fly over or land on Siberian territory he would have to secure permission from the Soviet government due to lack of diplomatic relations with that country.

Aviators seeking similar permission in the past have made application through the Amtorg Trading Company of New York or the Soviet Information Bureau here.

Details Undetermined

Lindbergh has not yet determined, he told Castle, whether he will return from the Orient by boat or plane. Many details of the trip, he explained, remained to be worked out.

In taking Mrs. Lindbergh, the former Anne Morrow, daughter of U. S. Senator Dwight Morrow of New Jersey, Lindbergh will have a companion who is a skilled aviator. Ever since the pair were married Mrs. Lindbergh has flown with her husband and recently received a pilot's license in her own right.

State Department officials emphasized that the tour had no official significance, being merely an adventurous pleasure trip for the personal enjoyment of the Lindberghs.

Third International Tour

The jaunt will be the third international tour the Flying Colonel has made since he came into the spotlight four years ago by spanning the Atlantic alone in his Spirit of St. Louis. Following that famous journey, he flew to Mexico and later on a good-will trip around Central and South American countries.

Officials of the Soviet Information Bureau told the United Press that Lindbergh will have no difficulty obtaining Soviet authorization if he chooses to fly over land on Soviet territory.

They said that the bureau has recommended that Lindbergh be accompanied by a Soviet pilot.

POLE-SEEKING SUBMARINE IS ALMOST READYNautilus Will Start for England Some Time
This Week

Provincetown, Mass., June 4.—(AP)—The Nautilus, lean and grim old Navy submarine which has been reconditioned and equipped with an odd looking trolley designed to rest against Arctic ice, was off Cape Cod today for final tests before starting on as strange an adventure as the fictionists ever recorded—the under-ice conquest of the North Pole.
With Sir Hubert Wilkins and a group of scientists aboard she will nose out into the Atlantic in a day or two, bound for England and thence to the north. Some time this summer she will glide out from Spitzbergen to cross the pole to Alaska, traveling most of the way beneath the northern ice-cap.
Some experts — notably English navy men—have attacked the project as a prize bit of foolhardiness. Others, notably Vilhjalmur Stefansson, explorer, have declared it to be an eminently practical way of determining what goes on at the top of the world.
The ship is equipped with radio and with a full complement of scientific devices for recording the life and times of the North Pole.
The submarine is anchored alongside a Coast Guard destroyer in Provincetown harbor.
She took a little less than 17 and one-half hours to make the trip from New London, Conn., where she is being refitted for the Arctic trip. An approximate speed of nine miles per hour was maintained during her New London-Provincetown run.

ASK STATE DEPT.
TO ARRANGE TOUR
OF JAPAN, CHINA

ceived no application for such permission, but that three permits to American fliers projecting flights across Soviet territories had been granted within the last month.
These included the proposed flights of Wiley H. Post of Oklahoma, and Harold Gatty of Los Angeles, of Hugh Herndon and Clyde Pargbort of New York, and of John Henry Mears of New York.

Russia Wants Him
The Soviet Bureau Informally expressed the view that Soviet Russia would be delighted if Lindbergh flew to Soviet territory. They said that Soviet aviators have a great admiration for Lindbergh.

It was recalled that when the "Land of the Soviets" plane arrived at New York in November, 1929, after its flight from Moscow, Lindbergh was at Curtiss Field to greet Pilot Semyon A. Shestakov, leader of the expedition, and his three companions. His cordiality and friendly interest at that time was greatly appreciated in Soviet Russia, it was said.

Further inquiry at the State Department as to Lindbergh's plans revealed he tentatively planned to make New Jersey, where he has his home, the starting point and fly across the continent. What route his flight across the continent would take, he could not say. It was believed, however, that Seattle quite probably would be his last stop in the United States proper.

Son To Remain Home
Lindbergh's infant son will remain in this country while its parents fly to the Orient either in care of its grandparents, Senator and Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, of New Jersey, or in care of a nurse.

American Army airmen were the first to link the North American continent and Asia by air. Lieut. Lowell H. Smith led the Army flight on the first "round-the-world" journey in 1924 and Lindbergh is expected in general to follow the route they chose.

Departing from Seattle, the Army fliers flew northwest to Alaska and then swung south and west along the gently curving chain of Aleutian Islands which extend from Alaska almost to Kamchatka beyond which lies the Sea of Okhotsk.

Bearing sharply south from Kamchatka are the Kurile Islands and over this broken bridge of rocks Lindbergh may follow the path of the Army men to Japan. Thence it is a comparatively short hop to the Korean mainland or even to cosmopolitan Shanghai on the China coast.

Most hazardous part of the flight upon which Lindbergh has chosen to test his skill is that portion over the treacherous volcanic mountain peaks which burst from the sea at the westernmost extremity of the Alaska peninsula and sweep generally toward Asia. These islands, the Aleutians, separate the frigid Behring Sea from the vast emptiness of the northern Pacific. Attu is the furthest west point of the American continent, at the end of a 1,200 mile arc of capricious seas and winds, where fogs come quickly and where ice may form on wings.

Smith and his Army companions made frequent stops enroute to Asia. Supply bases awaited them at intervals and it is presumed will await Lindbergh. Far to the north of the peninsula which flings the Aleutians westward toward the Orient the continents of Asia and North America literally are within commuting distance. But 54 miles, the breadth of Behring Strait at that point separates Cape Prince of Wales from Asia. And just there are Arctic circle traces an invisible but none the less emphatic warning to airmen that the elements will be kinder to them south of that line than north of it.

FRIENDS CONFIDENT
Springfield, Ill., June 4.—(UP)—"He'll make it. He always does what he attempts and if he needs any luck we'll wish him all the world has of it," said Craig Isbell, manager of the commercial airport field here when informed by the United Press today that his old flying mate, Col. Charles A. Lindbergh planned to make an airplane flight across the Pacific ocean.

It was at Springfield that Lindbergh, then known as "Slim," gained many friends when he flew the mail from Chicago to St. Louis in his early flying days.

Many of the pilots who "buddied" with him in those days still carry the mail through here and several of them with Isbell today expressed an enthusiastic confidence that "Slim" would make a successful flight.

"NO PARKING" APPROVED
Springfield, Ill., June 4.—(AP)—Validity of Chicago's "no parking" ordinance was re-affirmed by the Supreme Court today in denying William McKinley, Chicago, a rehearing of his attack on it. McKinley was fined for parking in front of his office and appealed to the Supreme Court to hold the ordinance invalid because it was an amendment of an ordinance which the Supreme Court had previously held unreasonable. He charged that the ordinance was as arbitrary and unreasonable as the original one.

Urgent Message
For Links, Whose
Address Is Unknown

Chicago, June 4.—(AP)—Judge Mary Bartelme of the Juvenile Court sent this message through The Associated Press today to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Link, "Somewhere in Iowa."
"If you want to keep your baby boy, let us know at once."
Here is the story behind the message:

Discouraged and jobless, Link and his wife left Chicago in April, seeking work in Iowa. They left their year-old-a-half-old son, Gerald, with a neighbor.

The neighbor, Mrs. Minnie Blythe, worked all day, was unable to care for the child and gave it into the keeping of the Juvenile Court. Unless Gerald—blue eyed and blond—is claimed soon, he will have to be brought into court, Judge Bartelme said, for adoption.

The Links have often written Mrs. Blythe, asking about Gerald. But they have never added their address. The last letter, dated June 1, was written in Marshalltown, Iowa. The father said they were going to Des Moines, where he thought he had "several days' work." In another letter, Link wrote he and his wife would go to Kansas City if he could find no work in Iowa.

"We are sure," Judge Bartelme said, "that the Links want to keep their baby; that they will return at once if they know he will have to be claimed soon or else be adopted."
The only description the woman jurist could give of the Links was that he was 45 years old and of German descent; that Mrs. Link's given name was Mary and that she had bobbed hair.

RENO GAMBLER KILLED AFTER
MURDER TRIALAssociate Of Dempsey
Slays Assailant
In Their Club

Reno, Nev., June 4.—(UP)—W. H. McCracken, a gambling dealer, was killed today by William Graham, prominent gambler and an associate of Jack Dempsey in boxing promotion.

Graham who was wounded in an exchange of gunfire was placed under technical arrest after he explained the shooting was a result of a quarrel over gambling matters.

Graham said that McCracken sought him out at the Haymarket Club, a gambling place, and fired first, wounding Graham in the left arm. Graham then drew his revolver and fired three shots into McCracken.

TWO FATALLY SHOT

Chicago, June 4.—(UP)—A boy bandit's burst of anger and allegedly crooked playing by a dealer in a gambling house brought death today to two persons in Chicago.

Oscar Erickson, a street vendor of ice cream, was shot and killed by a youthful bandit because he stopped to argue before raising his hands. The bandit, with a companion escaped in a woods at the outskirts of the city, where Erickson had been selling ice cream all night to motorists on a highway.

George L. Brimer, vice president of the ice cream company for which Erickson worked, offered a $1,000 reward for the capture of the bandit. Several families in automobiles parked nearby saw Erickson killed.

An unidentified New York gambler shot and killed Herman Marcus, 58, a restaurant proprietor, and wounded Max Margolis, 46, a dealer in a gambling room in Marcus' establishment.

The killer, who had lost a large amount of money, charged that Margolis was shifting a toothpick about in his mouth to indicate to his partner the value of his cards. He left the place when Margolis and Marcus refused to return his money, but returned and shot both of them.

Miss Neff And Pupils
In Enjoyable
Dancing Recital

Last evening between the first and second shows at the Dixon Opera House Miss Elsie Neff and her pupils presented a most delightful dancing recital, a finished performance from every standpoint, the pupils evidencing much hard work and giving some difficult dances, reflecting much credit to Miss Neff as an instructor. The program was varied, pleasing all. Miss Neff in her two numbers on the program gave very pleasing and graceful performances in the Waltz Kick and the Tap. Miss Neff is exceptionally clever at acrobatic dancing. Miss Jane Bradford was the efficient accompanist. The lovely costumes and pretty settings added to the success of the occasion.

Following is the enjoyable program:

CONVERSE

HE moon, bright, breathless and buoyant and brimful of June, floated up from the hillside, sloped over the vale, and poised herself loose in midheaven, with one pale, Minute, scintilless and tremulous star. Swinging under her globe. One lone nightingale. Sung aloof in the laurels. And here side by side, Hand in hand, the two women sat down undescribed, Save by guardian angels. As when, sparkling yet From the rain, that, with drops that are jewels, leaves wet The bright head it humbles, a young rose inclines To some pale lily near it, the fair vision shines As the flower with two faces, in hush'd tearful speech, Like the showery whispers of flowers, each to each Link'd and leaning together so loving, so fair So united, yet diverse, the two women there Look'd indeed like two flowers upon one drooping stem.

Operetta Presented By Rural School

The Operette, "Aunt Drusilla's Garden" was successfully presented by sixteen pupils of the King School, District 10, on May 29, at the Harmon High School. The play was to have been given before school closed but had been postponed on account of sickness and bad weather. Nevertheless, there was a good crowd present to enjoy it.

The main characters were: Aunt Drusilla Rogers—Elva Lair. Aunt Prudence Rogers—Erdeana Craig. Nelda Allevia Podger, their niece—Viola Switzer. Pat, the Irish Gardener—Harvey Littrell. Bob, leader of the gang—Leroy Dumphrey. Tad, member of the gang—Francis Wolf. Tiny, member of the circle—Gladys Littrell.

Solo parts in the operette were sung by Elva Lair, Viola Switzer and Gladys Littrell. Between the first and second acts, a musical reading by Mrs. Willie Hill a solo by Miss Darlene Osterlander, and a solo by Rita Knoll, were given and much enjoyed. Much credit should be given to the children, who are an exceptional musical group, and their music teacher, Miss La Vonne Long. Mrs. Zelma Hicks, the teacher, also helped to instruct them. Their pretty costumes were nicely made by Mrs. Jennie Long.

Women's Auxiliary Happily Entertained

Tuesday the Women's Auxiliary to the Presbyterian church and a few friends enjoyed a meeting and 1 o'clock picnic luncheon at the home of Mrs. Norman Miller on Route 5. There were forty in attendance. The Miller home was a bower of gay garden flowers from the Miller gardens. A sumptuous luncheon was served. The following composed the ladies of the committee in charge of the affair—Mesdames Norman Miller, W. A. Rhodes, W. T. Terrill, Wm. Nixon, Wiley George, H. C. Bartholomew, B. F. Schildberg.

A short business meeting was held and discussion of future work. The Auxiliary will take a recess for the summer months and will meet again in September.

POVERTY AND CRIME.

Poverty, misery and crime go hand in hand. They form such a closely-knit triumvirate that one sometimes is forced to believe that most of the so-called wickedness, perversity and general cussedness of the human race would vanish from the scene if only economic conditions could be improved sufficiently.

A few days ago the health council of a representative American city submitted its report on the city's "submerged tenth"—the very poorest class, which occupies a part of the town that sociologists have dubbed the "economic graveyard."

Ninety thousand people live in this particular section. They make up 10 per cent of the city's population. Listen to some of the figures about them:

To begin with, this 10 per cent of the city's inhabitants occupies only 6 per cent of the city's area. It contributes 11 per cent of the city's births, but only 6 per cent of the hospital births. It has 16 per cent of the infants' deaths, 18 per cent of the city's total unemployed and 24 per cent of the charity cases. It furnishes 17 per cent of the city's illegitimate births, 20 per cent of its juvenile delinquency cases, 35 per cent of its murders and 49 per cent of its houses of prostitution.

A glance at those figures is enough to show the inroads that vice, crime and general all-around unhappiness and misfortune make on the economically under-privileged. The child born in such an area does not get a fair chance in life. The cards are stacked against him from the beginning.

Nor is that all. The more fortunate man, who lives miles from such a neighborhood and grows to manhood without ever missing a meal or spending a night in jail, is affected by that neighborhood's existence far more than he usually imagines.

Because of this submerged and poverty-stricken group in his town, his taxes are higher. Because of the crime-breeding conditions that prevail there, his chances of getting held up by a bandit some day are higher than they should be. Because of the illegal enterprises that flourish there, his city government is infested with graft.

Such an area, in other words, is a point of infection; a plague-spot, influencing the entire city. No city can be healthy when poverty rests on any considerable number of its inhabitants.

A FEDERAL DEFICIT.

Secretary Mellon's insistence that the government must continue to meet its sinking fund requirements as in the past in spite of the pending deficit in the federal treasury is eminently sensible. So, too, is his remark that the federal tax structure is "out of balance"—remark that probably paves the way for an increase in the income tax.

The administration now is planning economies for next year that will, it is hoped, total approximately $125,000,000. If it can put this program through, and can thereby avoid a tax increase, well and good; if not, no fear of political consequences should delay an increase in taxes if that becomes necessary to avoid a deficit.

Meanwhile, it is worth bearing in mind that economists generally agree that income tax rates in the higher brackets could be increased materially without working any hardship on any one. It is the taxpayer in the lower brackets who has suffered the most from the depression; if an increase is in order, his taxes should be the last to be raised.

A LITTLE BIT SILLY.

Not long ago Miss Mary Anderson, chief of the women's bureau of the U. S. Department of Labor, went to Europe. She planned to listen in on a conference at Geneva, held under the auspices of the League of Nations, at which the possibilities for an international agreement on night work for women were to be discussed.

Now, however, official Washington has decided that our government cannot possibly have any such official relations with the League of Nations; and Miss Anderson, accordingly, has been instructed by cable to let the conference severely alone.

Apparently we have been saved from making a dreadful and costly mistake. Heaven knows what might happen if we had an official representative at a league conference.

THE TINYMITES

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The woman at the fish fire smiled and said, "Come closer, little child. My little blaze won't hurt you, so you needn't be afraid. I cook fine fish the live-long day to sell to folks who pass this way. If you are interested I will show you how they're made."

"You're very kind" said Clowny. "Gee, a sight like this I like to see." And then he walked up very close. The others came up too. The woman poked among the fish and said, "They'll make a tasty dish. Perhaps, when I've explained things, I can sell a few to you."

The Travel Man replied, "You bet. A real nice mess of fish I'll get and then I'll give the Tinymites a very lovely treat. As I remember they love fish. Each one can eat a great big dish. And as for me, there's nothing that I'd really rather eat."

The woman then explained the way that she cooked the fish each day. Said she, "I turn them 'round and 'round until they're done just right. Before my little blaze dies down I make sure that they're nice and brown. Now let me serve some of my fish. They'll be a tasty sight."

And so the Tinies ate and ate and agreed the treat was great. It wasn't long until the Travel Man said, "Please don't stuff. I will admit that I could stay right here and eat 'til end of day, but frankly, little fellows, I am sure we've had enough." They shortly left and soon they found a sight that made them turn around and stare. Said Copy, "Merry me! No thrills does this town lack." It was no wonder what they saw filled every Tinymite with awe. It was a little Jap girl with a baby on her back.

(The Tinymites have some more fun in the next story.)

TODAY IS THE ANNIVERSARY

NEW RUSSIAN COMMAND

On June 4, 1917, General Alexander Brusiloff became commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, succeeding General Michael Alexieff, who had resigned.

Another important resignation which took place in Russia at this time occurred when A. I. Konovaloff minister of commerce and trade, resigned because of a disagreement with the minister of labor concerning economic and financial questions. Many strikes followed in Petrograd.

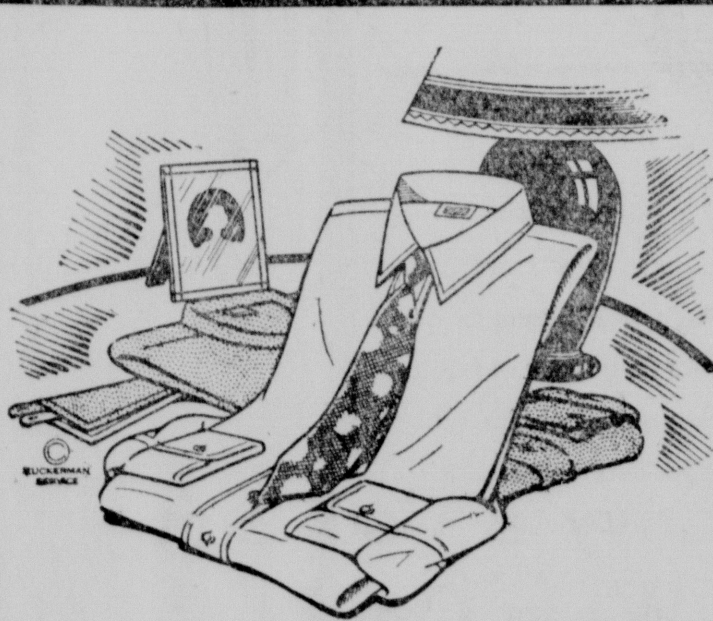

On this day at the front the Italians drove the Austrians from captured advance positions on the western slopes of San Marco.

This is also the anniversary of the terrific fighting at Lens when, in spite of the heavy activity of Allied armies, the British advance on the western front was temporarily checked.

FILIPINO GIVES ADDRESS BEFORE GRADUATES TODAY

Delivered Commencement Address At Western State Teachers

Macomb, Ill., June 4 —(UP)—The first Filipino to deliver a Commencement Day address at an American college, Resident Commissioner Camilo Osias spoke to the Western Illinois State Teachers College today on the subject "Educating for World Concept."

In an address enriched by his broad educational experience in the Philippine Islands, the commissioner suggested as an ideal aim: Education must be a process of securing for every individual, for every nation, and for humanity at large, the highest and fullest measure of efficiency, freedom, and happiness.

"We must educate for world concept in order to make universal the blessings of efficiency, freedom and happiness," he said.

Commissioner Osias said that although an ordinary mind sees obvious differences between East and West, calm reflection reveals essential parallels in cultures, and hopes and aspirations.

"The American and Filipino peoples are alike in their passions for education, in their devotion to religion, in their attachment to progress, in their faith in democracy, in their love of freedom of peace, and of all those other virtues, ideals and principles universally recognized as invaluable and priceless," he said.

Commissioner Osias said that a world concept of education is necessary as a basis of world democracy.

"The spirit of no one people, no one nation, no one race, can be made the basis for a world democracy," he said.

"In our day we see evidences that there is a broader consciousness of human interrelations. There is, indeed, a new international conscience with less race antagonism, less arrogance, less intolerance, less disposition to exploit and to disregard the laws and principles of international life.

"There is a more general desire for good will, for understanding, for cooperation, for friendship and for peace. There is a greater disposition to accord good motives to others and to appreciate the cultures of other peoples to respect their individualities, customs, idiosyncrasies, practices, hopes and ideals, and to see the good in other nations.

"I think I can with propriety speak of these things representing, as I am, a people who are beneficiaries of contributions of peoples from both hemispheres. My country has an Oriental setting. We are essentially of Malayan ancestry. With a background of our own culture and civilization, we are inheritors of the traditions, practices, and faiths of various nations of the Far East.

"We have also received the impact of European culture. And more recently, by the coming of America to our shores, our life has been enriched by Anglo-Saxon influences. We are anxiously awaiting the day when the people of this Great Republic shall grant us the boon of national freedom, for that day will be the commencement of a new renaissance in our civilization."

Stray, Ownerless Dog Is Condemned

Springfield, Ill., June 4 —(UP)—The stray, ownerless dog is the chief source of infection in the perpetuation of rabies, according to a statement issued here by the State Department of Public Health, pointing out that this disease reaches peak prevalence during the early summer.

The department's statement called attention to the fact that a considerable incidence of rabies now exists in Illinois. To date this year the department has provided the Pasteur treatment for 182 dog bitten people and has examined in the laboratory 158 dog heads for rabies.

"While not alarmingly extensive, the prevalence of mad dogs and of rabies is considerable in the state now. During the last 30 days the state department of health has provided the Pasteur treatment for 62 people who had been bitten by rabid dogs. Within the same period, 48 dog's heads have been examined for rabies in the department laboratories," the statement said.

"Since January 1, no less than 132 Pasteur treatments have been furnished to dog bitten citizens and 158 dog heads have been examined in the laboratories of the Department of Health.

The wide range covered by rabid dogs suggests that exposure of the canine inhabitants to rabies has been rather extensive. Careful observation of home or pet dogs for wounds and signs of illness is needed to control the spread of the disease to humans during the immediate future. Treatments to prevent rabies in humans should begin immediately after the infliction of wounds about the head and upper parts of the body and within ten days in all cases.

"Vaccination of dogs appears to give some degree of protection against rabies but that procedure can not be depended upon to guarantee complete immunity, as in no instance has vaccination been shown to give 100 per cent protection."

Torch Killer Is Prison Outcast

San Quentin Prison, June 4—(UP)—In the curious aristocracy of the Condemned Row Charlie Simpson, San Francisco "torch killer," is an outcast.

Simpson's ostracism by fellow murderers was made known by a prison guard. It has two causes, the guard said—the atrocity of his crime and the belief that it was committed at a time when the state legislature was considering a bill to abolish capital punishment and which it later voted down.

The other prisoners also are annoyed, it was stated, by Simpson's constant boasting that he will not be hanged. With the cynicism of the condemned, they believe not only he but they as well will die, and they find his constant cocksureness unnerving.

Simpson beat the aged Mrs. Albina Voorhies into unconsciousness, then fired her living body after he had saturated it with coal oil in a robbery that netted him $2. He is sentenced to die July 10.

Consider your Adam's Apple!!* Don't Rasp Your Throat With Harsh Irritants

"Reach for a LUCKY instead"

The great Lord Tennyson in a beautiful poem refers to a woman's Adam's Apple as "The warm white apple of her throat." Consider your Adam's Apple. Touch it—your Adam's Apple—That is your larynx—your voice box—it contains your vocal chords. When you consider your Adam's Apple you are considering your throat—your vocal chords. Protect the delicate tissues within your throat. Be careful in your choice of cigarettes. Don't rasp your throat with harsh irritants! Reach for a LUCKY instead. Here in America LUCKY STRIKE is the only cigarette which brings you the added benefit of the exclusive "TOASTING" Process, which includes the use of modern Ultra Violet Rays. It is this exclusive process that expels certain harsh irritants present in all raw tobaccos. These expelled irritants are sold to manufacturers of chemical compounds. They are not present in your LUCKY STRIKE. And so we say "Consider your Adam's Apple."

"THE SIX MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMEN OF THE TALKIES!"

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the first of a series of exclusive stories revealing the name of "The Six Most Beautiful Women of the Talkies" as chosen by a committee of Hollywood's famous directors for NEA Service and this newspaper and telling the story of each.

By DAN THOMAS
NEA Service Writer

Hollywood June 4—Who are the talkies' six most beautiful women? Ever since the motion picture industry began the battle over beauty has raged merrily in Hollywood where the most beautiful women in the world are assembled. Numerous girls have been presented for beauty honors, but seldom has it been possible to get even any two "experts" to agree on a certain one.

The greatest difficulty in making a selection is to determine exactly what constitutes beauty. Should physical features alone be considered, or should personality, disposition and ability to wear clothes enter in? The decision is always a hard one.

But NEA Service and The Evening Telegraph wanted "The Six Most Beautiful Women of the Talkies" selected and now this has been done with the aid of a special board of judges composed of six of Hollywood's most noted directors, each an unquestioned judge of real beauty. Of course, you may not agree with their selections—in fact they had a hard time agreeing among themselves—but if you know of any better method of choosing beauties, I'd like to know it.

The famous directors on the NEA Service-Evening Telegraph board are: Mack Sennett, Josef von Sternberg, George Fitzmaurice, Mervyn LeRoy, Edward Sutherland and Allan Dwan. Each submitted his choice of the six outstanding beauties, then the six girls receiving the highest number of votes were declared "elected."

Marlene Dietrich. This blond German actress is the first beauty that we shall discuss, not because the judges decreed her "the most beautiful of the six" (they certainly weren't rash enough to attempt any such distinctions as between the six) but merely because the story of somebody has to be told first. "Another Garbo!" was the word passed around when Miss Dietrich arrived in Hollywood from Germany. Everyone immediately started comparing her with this mysterious and aloof Greta. In the opinion of this writer such a comparison was entirely unwarranted. While each is a great actress, they are entirely different both from a standpoint of appearance and personality.

They are no more to be compared than are Charlie Chaplin and Harold Lloyd, both comedians but how totally different.

Marlene is discovery of Josef von Sternberg's—at least insofar as America is concerned. She played opposite Emil Jannings in "The Blue Angel," which he went to Germany to direct. In her he saw a great and beautiful dramatic actress who could inject a note of humor at just the proper moment. With a five-year contract she came to this country to reap fame and riches such as she never had known in Germany.

There is in our opinion only one way in which the Misses Dietrich and Garbo can be likened—both shun publicity. But they have different reasons for doing so. To Garbo it is purely business. Largely because it is impossible for a newspaper or magazine writer to see her she has remained "good copy" all these years.

For a short time after Marlene arrived here she faced interviewers almost every day. And her conversation with them centered chiefly

This is MARLENE DIETRICH, one of Hollywood's "six most beautiful women"—hair of reddish gold, wide eyes of aquamarine blue, delicately arched brows, flawless complexion, five feet and five inches in height, perfectly proportioned and truly feminine.

NEXT: Who do you think is another choice among the "Six Most Beautiful"? We'll tell you her name and a lot about her in tomorrow's paper. But in the meantime, we'll say that this girl is one of the youngest of stars, has brown hair and dark eyes, began as an "extra" and traveled swiftly to fame. Can you guess?

around the young daughter whom she left in Germany with her husband. "Please don't talk so much about your daughter—it is bad publicity," admonished studio representatives. "All right, if I can't talk about my baby I won't talk at all," replied the actress. And she has stuck to that.

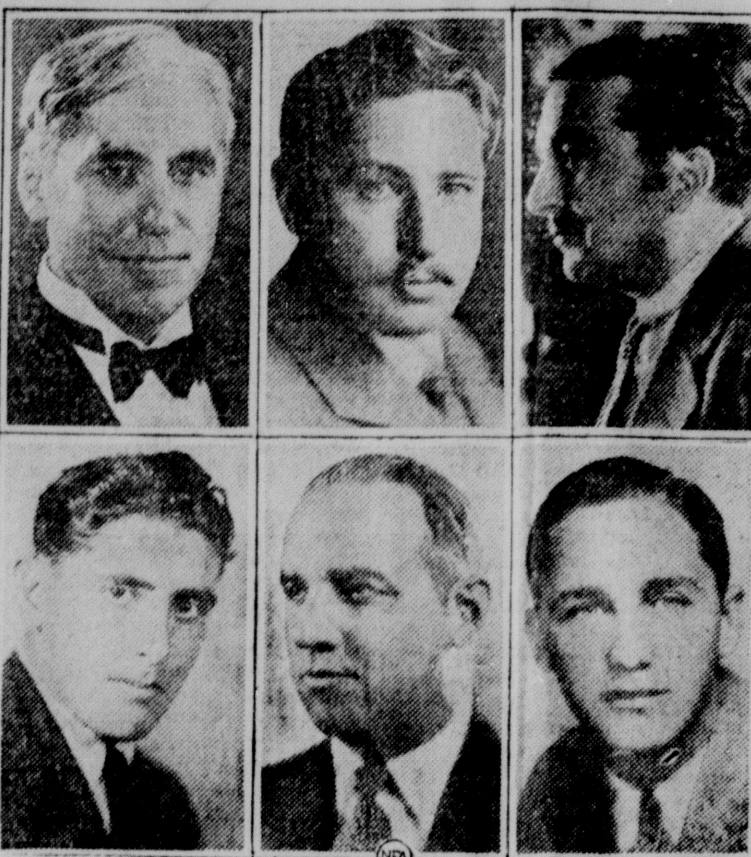

I doubt if any actress ever attained stardom as quickly as Marlene

Mrs. Belle Newman has returned from Los Angeles, Calif., and plans to make her home with her children. She is at the Dan Newman home at Sublette at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Myron Campbell of Elgin were guests at the W. B. Oakes home Friday and Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Suter of Oak Park who were also guests at this home returned Monday accompanied by Mrs. Eliza Oakes.

There will be no church service nor Sunday school next Sunday. The pastor, Rev. Cecil Frazier, will graduate from the Union Theological College in Chicago next Monday. He will be ordained here Tuesday, June 16, the services taking place in

Here are the six noted directors who comprise the NEA Service-Evening Telegraph board that has selected "The Six Most Beautiful Women of the Talkies." Since it was practically impossible to get the board together at any specified time because of their studio duties, each director submitted his choice of the six outstanding beauties. Then the six actresses receiving the highest number of votes were declared the most beautiful.

Mack Sennett—Won fame as a connoisseur of feminine beauty with his celebrated bathing beauties, and has since made stars out of many girls.

Josef von Sternberg—Discovered and brought to America Marlene Dietrich; directed "Underworld," "Morocco," "The Blue Angel," also enjoyed a marshall and went to roost in the orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bonner and daughter, Marion of Paris, were entertained at dinner Friday at the Cecil Emmons home.

Mrs. Porter Dunsmuir is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Cecil DeLancey and five children of Marseilles.

Mrs. C. E. Frazier will entertain the Pilgrim Study club Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nelson and John and Irene Carlson of Rockford were dinner guests at the A. J. Carlson home Sunday.

About eighty-five members of the Alumni Association partook of the delicious three course banquet served by the Rebekahs in the I. O. O. F. hall Saturday evening. Walter Williams acted as toastmaster to the enjoyment of all and John Seitz presided in the absence of Lindsay Jeanblanc, the president. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Howard Wellman; Vice-President, Rose Mortenson; Secretary-Treasurer, Faith Dishong; County Supt. L. W. Miller of Dixon gave an inspiring address.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dewey and daughter, Jean, of Downer's Grove, were weekend guests at the John Vivian home. Jean remained for a several weeks' visit.

Mr. and Mrs. George King entertained with a 500 card party Thursday night for Supt. and Mrs. P. P. Downey who are soon departing for Bloomington. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller were the couple receiving the prize for high scores, while Mr. and Mrs. Harry Patterson were awarded the consolation. The guests also

"Dishonored" and "An American Tragedy."

George Fitzmaurice—Directed the Ronald Colman-Vilma Banky films and has the reputation of never directing a bad picture; now directing Colman in "The Unholy Garden."

Mervyn LeRoy—The "boy director" who startled the industry with "Harold Teen"; has since directed such successes as "Little Caesar," "Gentleman's Fate" and "Five Star Final."

Edward Sutherland—Started under Charlie Chaplin and has wielded the megaphone on several of Clara Bow's and Jack Oakie's most popular films.

Allan Dwan—A veteran from the early days who has made many great pictures, dividing his time between directing, acting and writing; now on ace of Fox directors.

The members then adjourned to the ledger room where an excellent orchestra furnished dance music and a talented blind boy, Lester Stewart, entertained with songs and selections on a piano accordion. Mrs. W. S. Frost gave a humorous reading.

Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Biesecker, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Olmstead, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Daw, Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Biesecker, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vivian, Rockford; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Breyman, Rochelle; Mrs. Philip Flach, Amboy; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wellman, Ransom; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Willis, Dixon; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Biesecker, Franklin Grove.

The Lee Center Home Bureau met Tuesday with Mrs. Charles Ramsdell. The lesson was on food.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Hitchcock and Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Hitchcock of Chicago, called here Tuesday. The former spent part of his boyhood here before locating in Chicago, where he became a prominent official in several of the largest banks. He retired from the banking business several years ago and is now associated with his son in stocks and bonds. He is a cousin of Mrs. W. S. Frost.

Edwin Leake was entertained at dinner Wednesday of last week at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Jarvis Leake in Dixon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Leonard and daughter, Patsy of Chicago, spent the week-end at the S. L. Shaw home. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Pomeroy were also Sunday dinner guests there.

B. F. Lane, Mrs. F. C. Gross of Franklin Grove, Mrs. W. J. Leake and daughter, Edwina, motored to Ashton Saturday and enjoyed dinner at the Bluebird Inn.

The Oddfellows and Rebekahs will give a farewell party for Supt. and Mrs. P. P. Downey in the I. O. O. F. hall Friday evening after the regular Rebekah meeting. A short program will be followed by refreshments.

Raymond Patterson and Elizabeth Combar are the two pupils in the grammar room who were neither absent nor tardy during the year.

The Lee Center Grays will cross bats with Oak Ridge there Sunday.

Sunday Movies For Mattoon Approved

Mattoon, Ill., June 3—(AP)—Sunday movies were legalized by the Mattoon city council last night by a vote of 9 to 4.

For the first time, consequently, since the advent of moving pictures, Mattoon next Sunday will have screen entertainment without restriction.

This has been a ponderous question for Mattoon each municipal election time. Former Mayor S. A. Hugart, with a record of 35 years as school teacher and 45 years as preacher, went into office two terms ago as an ardent advocate of Sunday observance.

Last Christmas time, unbending a little he authorized Sunday movies for charity, if opened with prayer, but not a single prayer was forthcoming, but the movies were shown.

Today the new mayor, R. D. Bills, who accounts his election in part due to his more liberal attitude toward the question, acknowledge that all referendums in Mattoon have resulted in votes against Sunday movies.

"A referendum," he said, "is merely a guide and is not compulsory. I believe the majority of people in Mattoon want Sunday movies at this time. We have accordingly amended the ordinance permitting them seven days a week instead of six."

Free Garden Spots For Idle Gary Men

Gary, Ind., June 3—(UP)—Free gardening space for every needy person who applies was offered by the city of Gary today as a part of its unemployment relief campaign.

The Social Agencies Council announced it has obtained 210 acres of land, half of it within the city limits. In addition to a suitable plot of ground, each applicant will be given tree seeds, tools for cultivation and instruction in gardening.

Unemployed persons will be hired and paid by the city and social agencies to act as watchmen.

"TRAINING TABLE" AIDS DEFICIENT PENN STUDENTS

Experiment at Penn. State College Viewed as Success

State College, Pa., June 4—(UP)—Improvements in the health, morale and class work of the 23 State College male students at the college "training table for underweight students" were noted at the end of the first 10 weeks of the experiment, college authorities reported.

All students taking part in the experiment gained from three-quarters to a pound and one-half each week during the ten-week period. Students on the verge of "flunking out" were restored to good class standing during the same period.

"Training Table" valuable. Ralph D. Hetzel, president of the State College, said that the institution was seriously considering establishing a regular "training table" for students deficient in studies and poor in health as the result of the success of the unique experiment conducted by the College Department.

"The data obtained by the health service with its special table for underweight students indicates that the psychological gain may be of as great value as the physical gain," Hetzel said.

"A careful study is being made of the records of the students who participated in the great experiment, and an expansion of this service will probably be included in the health service program for next year."

Reports Improved Morale
Dr. J. P. Ritenour, college physician and health service director, reported a general marked improvement in the morale and studies of the participants in addition to the gains in health made by the students who sat at the special table.

The program was directed by Dr. C. D. Dietterich, assistant director of the health department, who said that it was similar to that followed at health camps. The meals consisted of well-balanced foods, rich in vitamins, and proportioned to contain 3,500 calories a day in three meals.

Rest periods of 30 minutes were prescribed before dinner and luncheon. Following dinner a recreation period was scheduled and during the evening a study period was arranged for the special class. Each man slept at least eight hours each night.

"The student starts his studying with a fresh mind and a rested body with the result that at the end of a few weeks we had men reporting that they were able to cover their studies in two hours where formerly they had been unable to complete their work in five hours," Dietterich said.

Cherry Picking Has Started In "Egypt"

Springfield, Ill., June 3—(AP)—Cherry picking has started at Cairo, the Weather Bureau crop bulletin prepared by Meteorologist Clarence J. Root, said today, and corn, meadows and pastures are showing improvement.

"The week was warmer than the previous one," the bulletin said, "and good rains are general. Vegetation is verdant. Corn, meadows and pastures show improvement as a result of favorable weather. The first planting of corn is mostly completed, but considerable replanting is necessary. Some corn has been cultivated. Winter wheat shows good to excellent condition and progress. The condition of oats varies but averages good. This crop is heading in central areas. Peaches are reported to be so thick that considerable thinning will be necessary. Cherry picking has started at Cairo."

MAKE AMERICA MEAT CONSCIOUS PACKERS' SLOGAN

Industry Faces Grave Disaster Speakers At Meet Declare

Chicago, June 4 —(UP)—Livestock men of the nation have adopted a showmanship plan to make the American public conscious of the economic ills of the industry.

A big parade on Michigan Avenue June 18 with cattle, sheep, hogs and cowboys and butchers marching under banners proclaiming "meat prices are down" was the plan agreed on at a luncheon in the Palmer House attended by almost 300 livestock men, packers and railroad executives.

The first parade will be in Chicago, said R. C. Pollock, secretary of the National Livestock and Meat Board, which called the meeting. Similar demonstrations will be held in other cities, it was announced.

"Complete disaster faces the industry," Pollock said, "unless we act and act quickly. Dramatizing the fact that meat prices are the lowest in 19 years and feed prices the lowest in 20 years with band music, marchers and floats, is the answer of the livestock industry."

Pollock's pessimistic views were seconded by Charles Carey, Cheyenne, Wyo., president of the organization.

"Livestock is not bringing within 25 per cent of the cost of production," Carey said. "Something must be done now. Retail prices are 33 per cent lower than on Jan. 1 and we must make consumers see that meat is economical food."

Luncheon of Beef

The livestock men gathered in the red lacquer room of the Palmer House and sat down to a luncheon which included cold roast beef as the main item on the menu. The beef was brought in by waiters in a big slab.

Arrangements are being made, Pollock said, for another such parade in Washington and other big cities of the country.

Four university bands have been secured, Pollock said, to play for the Chicago march. A thousand butchers have indicated they would march in white aprons. Packing plants and the stock yards will furnish big floats with cattle, sheep and hogs bearing placards that "meat prices are down," Pollock said.

He expects the parade to reach from Roosevelt Road to Lake Street along Michigan Avenue, a distance of 16 blocks.

Hotels Criticized

Hotels were criticised for maintaining high meat prices in the face of lower consumption and wholesale prices. Everett C. Brown, a former president of the National Livestock Exchange, said the producers had suffered the greatest losses, and that they should not be forced out of business by the continued profit taking of other interests which have failed to reduce prices to the public.

Thomas E. Wilson, Chicago packer, advocated an increase in meat consumption as the "greatest factor in improving business conditions all throughout the country."

"Since 1907," Wilson said, "the per capita consumption of meat has fallen off about 25 pounds. People have been weaned away from meat by the clever advertising campaigns sponsored by fruit and vegetable distributing organizations, and by the writings of dieticians."

Wilson said the war was a contributing factor to the decline of the meat consumption, but declared the belief of consumers that prices are too high has been the principal cause of the decline.

Fred W. Sargent, president of the Chicago & North Western Railroad, advocated a country-wide campaign to teach the public the benefits of a meat diet.

"If the per capita consumption of meat were increased only 7/12 of one per cent a month," Sargent said, "The Consumption figures would almost equal those of the period of 1921 to 1925. It would mean an increase of one billion pounds a year."

Sam Thompson, new member of the Federal Farm Board, was among the organization representatives who promised their support to the campaign to make America "meat conscious."

Daily Health Talk

AT THE SEASHORE

Going to the seashore? What are the health benefits you may expect there?

The seashore, like the mountains, has been regarded ever since even the most ancient days as a health-promoting region.

The physicians of antiquity advised sea voyages and residence at the seashore in the treatment of tuberculosis.

Nowadays, many a splendid sanatorium is located on the sea border, and the location has been found of special value for children's homes, hospitals, and the like.

At the seashore, the air may not be as pure as it is in the mountains, particularly if there are large cities or factories near.

But its humidity is greater, the range in temperatures is less, and the seasonal variations are less marked.

The atmospheric pressure is greater at sea level than in elevated regions.

This induces much slower breathing, and metabolism, or the utilization of foods absorbed, is improved. Sea air is said to have beneficial effects on the normal heart and the blood vessels.

The pulse is reduced, but the strength of the heart action is increased.

Exposure to the strong air currents that prevail at the seashore draws the blood to the skin and mucous membranes.

Congestion in internal organs is reduced. This has a beneficial effect on the body as a whole.

The action of sun light, so freely available at the sea shore, has a salutary effect on the body, provided, of course, one does not expose one's self too much, and thereby suffer a painful burn.

Many skin conditions, including acne (pimples) and psoriasis, are improved by sea bathing and sun light.

Tomorrow—Sea Bathing.

HOOVER SCHOOL GAINING FAVOR WITH HILL FOLK

Criglersville, Va., School Has Almost Doubled Attendance

By PAUL R. MALLON

United Press Staff Correspondent Criglersville, Va., June 4 —(UP)—President Hoover's personal effort to bring book learning to the backwoods of the Blue Ridge has proved eminently successful, according to his schoolmarm, Miss Christine Vest.

When the President furnished the funds for building the schoolhouse two years ago not a dozen young students in overalls and gingham made their appearance.

There were two obstacles to education. The roads were impassable in winter and the children were needed to tend the rock-studded mountain farms in the summer.

"Now we have regular attendance of twenty every day," Miss Vest reported today. "The good road built into the President's camp enables the boys and girls to come every day."

"They are getting along just fine. They take such an interest in things. None of them is ready yet to go outside to school but I think they will be pretty soon."

Another Commencement

Miss Vest is planning a second annual commencement for Hoover school sometime this month. She has invited Mrs. Hoover to come again, as she did last year, to meet the children. The President may also go. He did not attend last year. The boys are practicing little recitations while the girls are learning songs.

About three-fourths of the pupils are boys. Mountaineers do not readily see what good a woman can derive from education. But they are witnessing a swift change in their old empire. Until Mr. Hoover decided to build a fishing camp at the Rapidan there were no roads back into the mountains. Once or twice a year the head of the family drove in to Criglersville or Luray on mule or horseback to buy such things as are necessary. About all they need is clothing because they raise sufficient food to meet their requirements.

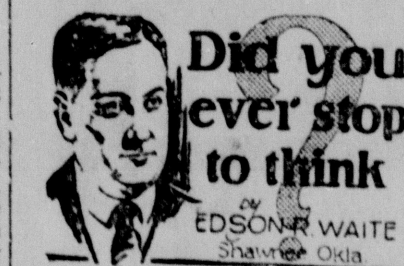

More Interest Aroused

The Hoover school and the road were innovations which they only casually welcomed. Now, however, interest has been aroused in their country and Virginia state engineers are prowling through their hitherto inaccessible region laying a road which will eventually enable every tincan tourist to back up to their doors.

It is reported some of the mountain men and women, whose ancestors have lived in their houses for generations, are planning now to move back further in the hills, so that they can get away from the invasion of their privacy.

The tobacco chewing philosophers who sit around the pickle barrel and the cracker box in the general store here are strong for the development. They foresee the time within the next few years when this country which lies far back from the railroads may be a great picnic ground for the big cities along the seaboard.

D. B. MACRAE, EDITOR AND VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE REGINA (SASK.) LEADER POST, SAYS:

"THAT nobody likes hard times. It is important to keep this point in view in any consideration of the causes of the present world-wide depression. The easy and the superficial way to account for the cause of the trouble is to say that the "BIG INTERESTS" are responsible because they are greedy for profits; that the banks are responsible because they will not reduce the interest on loans or make it easier to obtain credit; that the railways are responsible because they will not reduce rates; that the millionaires are responsible because they have a lot of money and will not give it away; that the labor unions are responsible because they stand for certain hours of labor and certain rates of pay; that the newspapers are responsible because they sometimes print the hard facts instead of the rose-colored pictures of foolish optimism; that the farmers are responsible because they are ship-shod in their methods and work only six months in the year; that the younger generation is responsible because it wants to live to high and not work too hard.

To accept any one of all of these statements makes it more difficult to come to grips intelligently with the problem of the day. They only result in throwing the investigator on the wrong track and to cause a lot of well-intentioned people to accept what others are saying, which saves them from the hard work of trying to think the thing through for themselves.

None of these people who have been mentioned is consciously responsible for the hard times. They would all like to have good times because in good times even the millionaire has a better chance to make more money. The banks make more money in good times than in bad. All the so-called "Big Interests" make more money when times are prosperous than when people are hard up.

Before there can be a beginning with an intelligent consideration of the big problem of the day, the mind must be cleared of the misconception that any group of citizens is purposely at work trying to make things hard for the other fellow in order that the "favored" people may make more money.

To the Banking Public

IT IS a matter of common knowledge, proved by analysis, that it costs a bank approximately $1.00 per month to carry checking balances of less than $50.00, and this is obviously unfair to the bank.

Consequently, in order to partially offset this loss, the banks of Lee County have decided to inaugurate a service charge of fifty cents per month, beginning July 1, 1931, on all accounts with balances that fall below $50.00 during the month. In other words, the banks are going to split the cost of handling such accounts on a "50-50" basis with the depositor, the bank assuming one-half and the depositor one-half. This, however, does not apply to fiduciary, church, charity or lodge accounts, and there will be no charge on savings accounts.

The Lee County banks have been reluctant to adopt this course, but it is now in force in the surrounding counties, and in most of the banks throughout the country.

By maintaining a balance of over $50.00 at all times this charge will be avoided.

Please feel free to call at your bank if you do not understand this fully, and it will be explained in detail.

MUSSOLINI HAS DECLARED FIGHT ON ANTI-FASCISTS

While Pope Pius Stands Firmly On Concordat He Holds Violated

Rome, June 4—(AP)—In Italy's 20,000 Catholic churches and in the meeting places of 9,000 Fascist groups the "man in the street" today heard the official pronouncements of the Vatican and the Italian government on the conflict between the church and the state.

Pope Pius, unbending in his contention that the government has violated the concordat with the Holy See by dissolving Catholic laymen's organizations, forbade the colorful religious demonstrations which usually mark this Corpus Christi day. The processions which usually take place outside the churches were by his order held inside their walls.

Premier Mussolini transmitted his orders through a resolution adopted by the directorate of the Fascist party yesterday, adjuring all Fascists to defend the party's achievements against all anti-Fascists, "under whatever banner."

Meanwhile informal negotiations seeking a settlement of the conflict were said to be "proceeding satisfactorily."

The priests in all the churches explained to their congregations this morning why the Corpus Christi day processions could not be held outdoors as usual. The Pope had suspended them, they said, because there was no guarantee that they would be free from disturbance by those persons who participated in recent anti-Catholic riots.

Given Pope's Speech

All the worshippers were given copies of the Pope's speech last Sunday in which he placed the full authority of the church behind the Catholic Action organization and told its leaders, "we are with you throughout the centuries."

Widespread reports of arrests of leaders of the Catholic Action Society created a stir. Secrecy was maintained about them.

Vatican sources said that Attorney Corsanego, honorary president of the Italian Catholic Young People's Society, had been taken into custody and that numerous others had been arrested on political warrants. Signor Corsanego was said to have been handed a "political admonition" which usually precedes banishment to the islands of Lipari.

Other reports said that about a dozen leaders of the society had been arrested in various cities of the country on the grounds that they had waged political warfare against Fascism. The government declined to confirm or deny this and refused to give out information concerning arrests.

Island For Exiles

The Lipari islands, a volcanic group off Sicily, are used as a place of exile for political prisoners. The occupants are said to enjoy the freedom of the town of Lipari but are forbidden to leave the zone of detention. Many distinguished Italians have been sent there in the past.

Premier Mussolini is mobilizing the strength and spirit of the Fascist party to stamp out "what remains and so far has been spared" of anti-Fascism, particularly in Catholic organizations.

Presiding at a meeting of the party's directorate yesterday, Mussolini ordered more than a million of his followers in 9,000 groups throughout Italy to marshal themselves within the next few months with the idea that such elements should not find "refuge and protection."

The public was told officially in a statement issued by the directorate that there was an attitude "openly and surreptitiously hostile in some sections of the Catholic Action Society." Political and military education were to be emphasized, the statement said, so that Fascist youth would be "ready for any order."

ENDS PILES QUICK

No Salves—No Cutting.

Your itching, bleeding, protruding piles will go when you actually remove the cause—bad blood circulation in the weak, flabby parts—and not one minute before. Salves or cutting can't do this—an internal remedy must be used. HEM-ROID, prescription of Dr. J. S. Leonard, succeeds because it stimulates the circulation, drives out congested blood, heals and restores the almost dead parts. HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record right in this city, that Rowland's Pharmacy says one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your Pile agony or money back—Adv.

REFINEMENTS OF CUT AND TRIMMINGS ARE FEATURED THIS YEAR

Right in the swim are these new beach togs. (Left to right) The new square-necked yellow wool one-piece bathing suit with perling at the belt, short bloomers and a zipper fastening on the back to open easily for sun-tanning, from Best and Company, New York. The robe is yellow and white polka dotted silk. Brand new and destined for private beaches is the shorts and brassiere suit of black, with white grograin belt. For bicycle polo, after the swim, one of the new tailored suits of green has a pale yellow fitted yoke with the brown cut scantily to meet it. Like a jabot, the white sail of a little yacht motif on an aquamarine blue suit flutters in the breeze. (Seated) White suits for newness and especially if they have their own little holeros. This one also has a tiny cap of the white jersey. Smart, comfortable and very youthful is the navy blue sailor pajama suit, with trick straps for a hip yoke and a short-sleeved Eton jacket. With this is worn one of the open-mesh polo shirts, white, with a blue touch. The beret is blue, too. Both suits from Bonwit Teller's Atlantic Beach Club Show.

Court Room Was Bridal Chamber

A court room off of the county jail was the strange bridal chamber of "Blondy" and his wife.

"Blondy" is J. A. Christian, 29. His bride was the former Helen Bennett, 21. After Christian was acquitted of liquor conspiracy charges in the cases brought against a number of Hot Springs, N. M., citizens, he was sentenced to a term in jail on a bootlegging charge.

But the sentence did not discourage Miss Bennett. They were married February 21 in the county jail by Peace Justice Roy Connor, who gave the newlyweds an exclusive key to the courtroom as a wedding present.

Sheriff Pete W. Kinney then ordered a bed and other furniture moved into the room and the couple set up housekeeping.

Christian was made a trusty, and his bride became the chief cook at the jail. "Blondy" forgot bootlegging in his enjoyment of his bride's biscuits. His bride also cooked the meals for her "family," consisting of three other prisoners.

Every evening, when "Blondy" had carefully looked the other three up for the night, and Helen had scraped and polished the last dish, the honeymooners walked up the steps to their courtroom bed chamber.

Secretary Stimson Will Study Europe

Washington, June 4—(AP)—International problems will be studied at first hand this summer by Secretary Stimson.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Stimson plan to leave this month for an unofficial tour of Europe. Although Secretary's party will be as informal as possible, he is expected by officials here to take advantage of every opportunity to study the questions confronting European countries.

Great Britain, France, Italy and Germany particularly interest the Secretary, and he has indicated he would call on the Foreign Ministers of those governments.

Mr. and Mrs. George Killmer of Amboy were callers at the Frank Atkinson home Wednesday evening.

George Mynard and Mrs. Johnson of Harvey, Ill., were callers Monday afternoon at the Frank Mynard home.

Two-Year Study Of Buses, Trucks Ends

Washington, June 4—(AP)—The Interstate Commerce Commission has completed a two-year inquiry into the nation's bus and truck transportation question and plans to submit recommendations on its findings to the next Congress.

Before the final report is drafted,

Man Who Gave Up Fortune Is Dead

Los Angeles, June 4—(AP)—A life of strange adventure and romance leading half way around the world at the price of a fortune of a fortune of $25,000,000, has ended with the death of Major Jordan Lawrence Mott, 59, once New York's "millionaire reporter."

In late years a nationally known sportsman and author, Major Mott had lived on Santa Catalina Island. He spent the summers at a camp on the North Umpqua river near Roseburg, Ore., where death occurred yesterday.

At his bedside was his widow, the former Francis Hewitt Bowne, once a light opera singer, for whom he forsake the fortune of his father, J. L. Mott, New York iron manufacturer.

He was the author of a successful novel, "Jules of the Great Love." Much of his time was devoted to campaigns for protection of natural game.

Besides his widow, his father and two children by his first marriage survive.

Chicago's Yard To Resemble London's

Chicago, June 4—(UP)—Chicago's Scotland Yard—like the famous crime detention unit of London—"will never forget and never tell a secret," Acting Police Commissioner John H. Alcock said today.

Organization of the new crime-fighting bureau was practically completed today, but the utmost secrecy surrounded its personnel. Alcock's only statement was an expression of confidence that the department will reduce Chicago's crime.

Slayer Of Dance Hostess Must Die

New York, June 4—(AP)—Rudolph C. Durlinger, 25, Ossining truck driver, was convicted today of murder, first degree, for the killing of Virginia Brannen, dance hall hostess.

Justice Cohn said he would pronounce the mandatory sentence next Monday which will condemn Durlinger to the electric chair in Sing Sing prison in his home town.

Durlinger was calm and stoical when he heard the verdict which the jury returned shortly before 2 A. M. after seven hours of deliberation.

Miss Brannen, who came to New York from Bangor, Me., was shot during an automobile ride in the Bronx April 27.

Durlinger said he shot her accidentally when she clutched his revolver. He then drove to Yonkers and tossed her body behind a hedge.

Another member of the automobile party was Francis Crowley, now in the Sing Sing death house for the slaying of a Long Island policeman. They were captured in a Manhattan

Well Known Banker Died During Night

Oyster Bay, N. Y., June 4—(AP)—Mortimer L. Schiff, banker, philanthropist, member of the firm of Kuhn, Loeb & Co., and President of the Boy Scouts of America, died suddenly during the night of a heart attack. He would have been 54 years old tomorrow.

After a day which included his usual visit to his office, an afternoon round of golf, and dinner with his family, he retired to his room. He was found dead clad in a lounging robe and seated in a chair. He was to have sailed next week to Europe to join Mrs. Schiff.

Mr. Schiff, who was born in New York City June 5, 1877 had been a partner in Kuhn, Loeb & Co., since the first of the century.

He was married April 30, 1901, to Adele G. Neustadt, who went to Europe two weeks ago. There are two children, John Mortimer Schiff, 26 years old, who lives at the estate here, and Mrs. Richard B. W. Hall of New York.

HOUSE FOR ROOSEVELT

Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass., June 4—(UP)—Colonel Edward M. House, adviser to President Wilson, will do "everything possible" to secure the Democratic presidential nomination of 1932 for Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York.

The Colonel, who will be 73 on July 26, told the United Press at his summer home here today that his "everything possible" might not be a whole lot "because my health can be described as only fair, and I'm afraid I will not be able to take a very active part in the matter."

Jerusalem, June 4—(AP)—Former King Hussein of the Hedjaz died at dawn today at Amman, Trans-Jordia, after a long illness. Three of his sons were at the bedside. Another, King Feisal of Iraq, was unable to come here from Bagdad. The funeral cortege left shortly after his death for this city where burial will take place.

Hussein was born in Constantinople in 1856, the son of one of the noblest families in Arabia.

Minnesota Pitcher Hurls Perfect Game

Chicago, June 4—(AP)—Minnesota's Big Ten baseball season has ended perfectly—for Walfrid Mattson.

In the final Minnesota game of the season yesterday, Mattson hurled a no-hit, no-run game against Wisconsin, regarded as one of the heaviest hitting teams in the conference.

Only four Badger batsmen reached base. One raced all the way to third when Cherp dropped a fly ball, two more drew passes while a fourth was hit by a pitched ball. Minnesota won the game, 3 to 0, on six hits.

Indiana finished its schedule yesterday by defeating Michigan, 9 to 3, and running its season's record to four victories and as many defeats. Michigan won five and lost four.

The championship will be decided Saturday when Chicago meets Wisconsin. A Chicago victory would give Chicago the title with a record of nine won and two lost; a defeat would give the crown to Illinois, which finished the season with a record of eight won and two lost.

Chicago Barrister Escaped Jail Term

Springfield, Ill., June 3—(AP)—William Scott Stewart, Chicago lawyer, definitely escaped a three months jail term today when the Supreme Court denied the state a rehearing of the contempt case against him. Stewart was sentenced to jail by the late Judge Comerford of Chicago, for alleged contempt while Stewart was representing Amante Rongetti, Chicago doctor, convicted on an illegal operation.

Stewart declared that the "trial court was pioneering at his expense."

The court also denied the people a rehearing of the Sears inheritance tax case appealed from Lake county. This means that the estate of Sears will not be required to pay additional tax requested by the county.

Nancy Carroll To Divorce Kirkland

New York, June 3—(UP)—Nancy Carroll, screen star, has brought suit for divorce in Nogales, Mexico, against her husband, Jack Kirkland, the latter admitted today.

"It's just another one of those thing— incompatibility," — Kirkland said when reached at his apartment here. "We tried our best to get along but we just couldn't any longer."

"We're still very fond of each other and we shall remain friends but we decided it was best to sever matrimonial bonds."

Kirkland, a former newspaperman, met Miss Carroll in 1923 when she was in the chorus of "The Passing Show" at the Winter Garden. They were married the following year and have one daughter, Patricia.

BILLY THE KID CLAIMS HE WAS CUSTER'S SCOUT

Oklahoma Man, 95, Says He Escaped from Massacre Of 1876

Okmulgee, Okla., June 4—(UP)—Historians have recorded that not a white man escaped alive from Custer's massacre, but "Billy the Kid," contends there was at least one—himself.

As he celebrated his 95th birthday here recently the veteran scout and pioneer, known in everyday life as J. B. Guntor, related how the color of his hair saved his scalp when the warring Sioux, led by Chief Sitting Bull, slew 300 United States cavalrymen in the Little Big Horn river in the Dakotas in 1876.

"I was wounded 14 times in that affair," he said, "and the Sioux threw me back into the maze of dead soldiers' bodies because they were scalping only black-haired men. I had dyed my hair with blood to make it red."

Custer's Fate Doubtful

Guntor, or Billy the Kid as he said he was known to General Custer, Buffalo Bill, Kit Carson, and other famous scouts and leaders, was born in Arkansas in 1836. He left that state in early manhood to become a "part of the west." Later he joined Custer's ill-fated band as a scout he said.

As to Custer's fate he did not know. Older historians recorded that Custer died at the hands of the Sioux. Recent recorders say Custer died by his own hands rather than be captured by the Sioux.

Sitting Bull, so the recent accounts maintain, ordered his braves to capture Custer alive, and when the braves closed in on Custer he took his own life.

Billy the Kid claims he escaped the Sioux despite the fact the United States government will not recognize his application for a pension as a scout to Custer because he has no proof other than his own word.

"Federal officers told me that history said every white man died that day, and, that since I have no discharge from General Custer they cannot recognize me as a member of the troop," Guntor said.

Scores Of Southern Banks Are Reopened

Atlanta, Ga., June 3—(AP)—Gradually the pocketbook of the south is being reopened as scores of banks resume business after forced closing in 1930 and the early weeks of 1931.

Since January 1 deposits of more than $39,000,000 have been restored or "frozen" by depositors agreements with the reopening of 159 banking houses in Arkansas, Mississippi, North Carolina, Kentucky and Florida.

Under the "freezing" agreements the funds remain on deposit, not subject to withdrawal, for a stipulated period.

Baseball Gossip

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Although their cause seems more or less hopeless in the face of the Athletics' phenomenal streak, Walter Johnson's Washington Senators are living up to their promise to give the champions a run for their money in the American League.

While the New York Yankees have dropped back the last fortnight, the Senators have plugged doggedly along, winning 10 of their last 14 engagements and keeping within halting distance of the fast traveling leaders. They are firmly established in second place, five games behind the Mackmen and two ahead of the Yankees.

The Senators, in fact, have done as well as Johnson predicted they would when he envisioned a pennant this spring. His only mistake was in figuring the Athletics were due to burn out a bearing. The champions displayed no symptoms of slipping yesterday as they registered their twenty-third victory in their last twenty-six starts. Lefty Grove, pitching his eighth straight win, let the Chicago White Sox down with six hits and beat them, 2 to 1.

Washington kept pace with its second straight over the visiting firemen from Detroit, also by a 2 to 1 margin. Bob Burke, young southpaw allowed only three hits to best Vic Sorrell in a tight mound duel. The Senators bunched three of their six blows to score both their runs in the first inning. Doubles by Sam Rice and Cronin did the work.

Joe Vosmik, rookie outfielder, cracked a home run in the eleventh inning to give the Cleveland Indians their ninth straight victory at the expense of the Boston Red Sox, 5 to 4. The Sox had scored four times in the eighth to tie the count.

The western clubs gained an even break for the day when the St. Louis Browns, personally conducted by Oscar Melillo, beat out an 8 to 1 triumph over the Yankees. The Browns second sacker drove in four runs with two singles, a double and homerun, the latter his eighth consecutive hit in two days.

Matters stood all square after two days of National League warfare west of the Alleghenies. The New York Giants came back to lick St. Louis, 9 to 5, and again click within a game and a half of the top, and the Chicago Cubs staged a last inning rally to down Brooklyn, 9 to 8, and even their series.

Crafty Clarence Mitchell went the route against the Cardinals, while the Giants piled up 14 hits off Jess Haines and four hurlers who followed him. The Robins contracted a bad case of the fumbles in the last inning to break their five game winning streak. Muffs of easy rollers by Wally Gilbert and Fresno Thompson, combined with hits by Cuyler and Hemsley, allowed the Cubs to score the tying and winning runs off Jack Quinn. Babe Herman clouted a homer, double and two singles for the losers.

Dreesen's triple, followed by Rabbit Maranville's squeeze bunt, gave the Boston Braves a run to nose out the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4 to 3 in ten innings. Mosoff, substitute outfielder, drove in two of the Pirates runs with a home run in the first inning. Eppa Rixey, veteran Cincinnati left-hander, turned the slugging Phillies back with four hits as the Reds squared their series 3 to 1. It was Rixey's first complete game of the year. Pinky Whitney nipped him for two doubles.

HACK BACK IN GAME
Chicago, June 4—(AP)—Hack Wilson, home run king of 1930, has been given another chance to come back with the Cubs.

He was inserted in the lineup again yesterday when Johnny Moore reported with a slight leg injury. Moore expected to be back in the game in a few days however, unless Hack made good.

So far this season, Wilson's bat has been impotent of his usual production of hits. In 108 times at bat, he has cracked but 27 hits for a total of 13 bases. His home run bat has yielded dividends but twice.

SWITCH SCHEDULE

Indianapolis, June 4—(AP)—Hoping to determine which is the more profitable time to play baseball—afternoon or night—the management of the Indianapolis club of the American Association has announced that beginning next week only two night games will be played each week "until further notice."

The policy of playing all games except Sunday contests at night was started last year.

Norman A. Perry, Tribe owner, said he merely wished to do a little "experimenting" in preparation for occupation of a new park which will be completed before the end of the season. He said if weather conditions are normal he believed the results during the next three weeks

SETTING NEW RECORD

Chicago, June 4—(UP)—With the American Association season almost one-third over, President T. J. Hickey said today that the aggregate attendance for the eight clubs was well ahead of last season.

"Seven clubs in the league are having a successful year," said Hickey, "Toledo, due to very bad weather, has not done so well. The Louisville club is having one of the best years since 1924. Reports that some of the clubs are having financial troubles are without foundation. The league is celebrating its 30th year with the same clubs it started with and it will finish with the same clubs."

The record attendance of 1,700,000 was set in 1926 and President Hickey expects the 1931 attendance to compare favorably with that figure. The close race has added interest. Three clubs, Louisville, Columbus and St. Paul, have occupied first place and never more than seven games have separated the leader from the last place team.

SHIRES SETTING RECORD BY HIS GOOD BEHAVIOR

Former "Bad Boy" Given Praise By Head Of American Assn.

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
Chicago, June 4—(UP)—Conducting himself as a model for other players, Art Shires, one-time bad boy of the Chicago White Sox, was praised today by T. J. Hickey, American Association president, for his splendid behavior as first baseman of the Milwaukee Brewers.

"Shires has set a fine example for the other players to follow," said Hickey. "Three times this season Shires has acted as peacemaker when trouble seemed imminent between players and umpires."

"Before the season opened Shires said to me, 'You won't have any trouble with me, Mr. Hickey. I am going to behave myself,' and he certainly has lived up to his word."

Now that Shires has proved he really can tend to his ball playing and let fighting alone, he seems to be headed back to the major leagues. When Washington shipped him to the minors last fall Shires said:

"They know I can play ball, but they don't think I can behave myself. I'll prove I'm not a trouble-maker and I am coming back to the big leagues."

The latest averages of the American Association show that Shires is leading the league in three departments, tied for the lead in another and second in another:

Has Good Record

Second in batting with an average of .445

First in hits with 60.

First in runs batted in with 36.

First in total bases with 85.

Tied for lead in runs scored with 33.

Playing with a minor league hasn't taken anything away from Shires' aggressive tactics on the diamond.

"I like to play ball," said Shires when he left the majors, "and I had rather play regular with a minor league any day than sit on the bench with the world's champions."

With the season almost one-third over, Shires has let his fly just one time this season, and President Hickey absolved him of all blame.

"Shires hit a spectator who rushed on the field at Kansas City and he did it to protect a player on his club who was in danger of being attacked by fans who were swarming on the diamond," said Hickey. "The spectator had no business on the field and Shires was perfectly right in protecting his teammate."

Shires is popular with Milwaukee fans and a big drawing card throughout the American Association. It has been Shires' great playing which has helped keep Milwaukee in the thick of the race.

DISORDER MARKS AMATEUR BOXING SHOW IN GARDEN

American Olympic Stars Defeat Italians 5 Matches To 2

BY DIXON STEWART

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 4—(UP)—United States amateur boxers today boasted a decisive victory over Italy's 1928 Olympic champions, but the amateur Athletic Union was undecided regarding the value of amateur boxing as a developer of international good will.

The Italian-American international series, staged at Madison Square Garden last night, brought Italy's first team competition defeat in more than three years—the Americans winning by a margin of five matches to two—but was marred by a prolonged and astounding display of bad temper which did little to cement friendly relations between the competing nations.

The demonstration followed a decision giving Louis Salica of New York a victory over Edelweiss Rodriguez, 125-pound champion of Italy, in the opening bout. Salica had a decided edge in the first two rounds of the bout and in the opinion of ring side boxing experts was entitled to the decision despite Rodriguez's strong rally in the final round.

When the verdict was announced Rodriguez dropped to the canvas, kicked his feet in the air, bit at his glove and shouted in protest. His seconds joined in the protest and it took the combined efforts of three men to drag Rodriguez from the ring and to his dressing room.

Half Hour Uproar

Gallery spectators, overwhelmingly Italian in sentiment, joined in the uproar, booing the officials and showering the ring with coins, paper, cigar stubs, lemons and other debris. Spectators who believed the decision justified attempted to cheer down the dissenters and the uproar continued for more than half an hour.

Meanwhile the Italian coach had ordered his men from the arena and declared he would not allow his team to continue unless the decision was reversed. After a long conference with A. A. U. officials the fighting was resumed, apparently with the agreement that Italy would be given the decision in the next bout.

At any rate, Flavio Debonis of Boston was robbed of a well earned decision over Vincio Dallorto, Italian 118 pounder. Debonis outboxed the Italian by a wide margin and was entitled to the decision but the officials, apparently intent on pacifying the

ARGENTINE GOLF
STAR SETS PACE
IN BRITISH PLAYLeads Field At Half Way Mark In Open
Tournament

Carnoustie, Scotland, June 4—(AP)

—Jose Jurado, little Argentine flash, equalled the record with a 71

in the second round of the British open golf championship today to take an early lead at the half-way mark with 147.

Playing brilliant golf all the way,

the tiny Argentine covered the first nine holes in 34 and then came home in 37 to equal the record set up in the qualifying round on Tuesday by Mac

Donald Smith and equalled later in the same day by the British star, Archie Compton.

Just in back of Jurado was the veteran Detroit pro, Tommy Armour, former American open champion, who shot a 75 today for a 36-hole total of 148. Armour played steady golf on the outgoing nine which he covered in par figures but ran into trouble on the first three holes of the second nine and took 39.

Armour's golf was spectacular—very good in spots and very bad in others. In a stretch of six holes through the middle of his round he had four fives and two twos. He was missing short putts and sinking the long ones. He was at his best coming home, his marvelous recoveries from hooked drives keeping his score down.

The fifteenth hole was typical.

First he pulled his drive, then he swayed his second clear, then he flurried to the fourth, feeling ground.

A fence was moved so he could get to his ball and he dropped a high arching pitch ten feet from the pin and holed the putt for a par four. The hole is named "the lucky slap."

At the seventeenth he had to dig his ball out of a gorse bush with a big niblick but he dropped it twenty feet from the pin.

Trailing three two leaders were Joe

Kirkwood, the trick shot star from

New York, and W. T. Twine of Bromley in Kent, with 150s. Kirkwood, after a disastrous 40 on the outgoing nine, burned up the course coming home and needed only 35 strokes.

Twine, whose 72 in the first round gave him a tie with Johnny Farrell and Henry Cotton for the lead, could not get going today and took 78.

Three strokes further back at 153 was Tomasco Genta, another member of the Argentine delegation of four.

Hector Precerco and Marco

Churio, the two other Argentines, came in together with scores of 77-

157 and 75-151, respectively.

HOOVER FACING DIRE OBSTACLE; DOESN'T SWEAR

How Can He Wage Real Campaign Against Good Cussers?

By RAYMOND CLAPPER
United Press Staff Correspondent

Washington, June 4 (UP)—Another political issue is likely to be thrown on this already heavily burdened nation if men like Ambassador Charles G. Dawes and General Smedley Butler keep on saying what are known to small children as bad words.

Swearing already has become a problem for the federal government. It has turned up before the federal Radio Commission. This week the United States Supreme Court had to rule on a case in which "hells" and "damns" appeared with shocking frequency.

The latest outburst has come from Dawes, here as a White House guest, who remarked, and there were witnesses to the episode, that "diplomacy is easy on the mind but hell on the feet."

The incident took on immediate political significance when it was recalled Dawes first got his start in public life by shouting "Damn" and "Hell Marla" in a shrill voice at a House investigating committee every time a Congressman asked him a question.

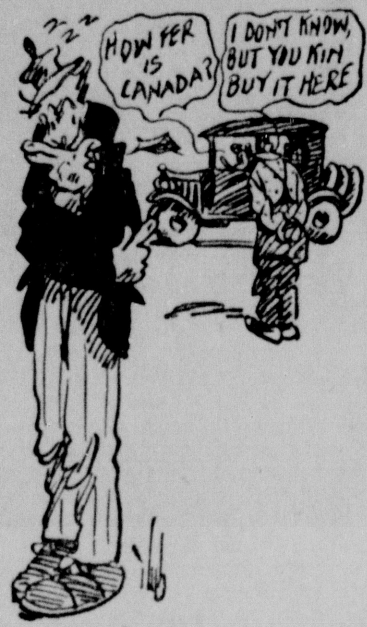

For years persons who had been summoned before congressional investigating committees had been berated for honest efforts to answer questions of the Congressmen. So when the General began to swear, he was hailed as a man of rare courage and conviction and forthwith was pushed willingly into one high office after another.

Now General Butler is going about the country shouting "hell" and "damn" into microphones with every intention of being the next United States Senator from Pennsylvania. He is reported to have gained thousands of prospective votes when a studio manager in Philadelphia recently cut him off the air for saying "damn."

If he turns out a winner by these tactics, the situation is expected to become serious, for political observers believe there would immediately spring up a crop of unscrupulous imitators who would go to any length to get votes and then it would not be safe to turn on the family radio until women and children were excluded from the room. Republicans are aware of the serious disadvantage such a state of affairs would leave them in with Mr. Hoover who, being a Quaker, never swears, in public.

There are laws against swearing. The Federal Radio Act forbids profane language over the air. A number of states include swearing under common nuisance statutes making unlawful "obscene, indecent, or profane utterances over the telephone or in a public place, or in the presence or hearing of children, or in the presence of a female, without provocation (not that, men) or near a dwelling house and in the presence of the owner or a member of his family."—see brief U. S. in the Robert Gordon Duncan vs. United States of America.

In the recent conscientious objectors case, Justice Sutherland of the United States Supreme Court held that "we are a Christian people (Holy Trinity Church vs. United States 143 US 457)." and in the radio case this week the court refused to interfere in the conviction of Robert Gordon Duncan, who operated a radio station in Oregon. The Court of Appeals held that Mrs. Em Moon got a letter 't' day from her daughter who's in high school but she can't make it out. If a couple walks along like th' woman wuz arrested they're married.

ABE MARTIN

while his language was not obscene, it was profane, and therefore a violation of the Federal Radio Act. He could have avoided a good deal of trouble by having said, instead of what he did say, "by gad" and "dum soundrel."

Denied Profanity
Duncan in appealing to the Supreme Court defended his language as not profane with this argument: "Profanity is taking the name of the Deity in vain. We submit the words relied upon herein are not profane, within the meaning of the law. The definition and ideas of profanity and 'blasphemy' handed down to us from older times and from decisions upon the 'blue laws' of our ancestors, are relics of an age which is dead. They were born of a state of scientific knowledge which predicated a flat earth, with a small sun, moon, and stars, revolving around it; and a theology made to work with the flat earth with its heaven above and its hell below it and all presided over by an exaggerated roman jupiter as deity—a deity who intervened personally in all the affairs, thoughts and acts of man. This age being dead, why not allow its faults and its evils to be interred with its bones, while the good which it did lives after it? Is it not time for the most important court in the world to take a position more in harmony with the age in which we live?"

But our new liberal Supreme Court appeared unable to bring itself into line with the usage of the modern flapper, and sided with the government, which opposed the review holding that Duncan and his words were justly "within the condemnation of the statute as being irreverent and calculated to bring disrespect to the name of God."

Moths Stay Away... Or Die

Here is the latest way and the greatest way for dealing with moths and their larvae. It was worked out in a famous chemical laboratory. The highest authorities have accepted and endorsed it.

We offer this creation to you in the form of rings, called Cady's Moth-Gassers. Hang in your closets, lay in your chests and drawers. The rings slowly evaporate, and the gas goes down. It permeates your fabrics without harm. That heavy gas drives moths away. Or, if they stay and lay their eggs, it kills them and their larvae.

Non-poisonous to humans, non-offensive. No fire risk. But it kills the deadliest enemy they have ever met. They know it and they flee from the fumes.

Lost! 21 Lbs. of Fat in 4 Weeks

Well known Indianapolis woman, jubilant—Reduced hips 4 inches. Reduced bust eight inches. Regains energy and pep.

Suppose you weighed 189 lbs. and for ten years you had gradually been taking on weight, your mirror showed you with a large double chin, heavy arms and legs, large hips and bust.

And suppose this over-fat condition made you too heavy for your own feet—until you felt constantly all dragged out, nervous, irritable, your knees were stiff with rheumatism and you had terrific headaches.

And then you tried one thing after another—disagreeable salts that nauseated you—reducing pills that gave you weak spells—and you're all ready to despair.

Such was the dilemma of Mrs. Emma Webber, 1318 S. Sheffield Ave., Indianapolis, Ind. She read about Bonkura, the safe natural way to take off excess pounds—by cleansing wastes from the intestines and removing retained moisture from fatty tissues. But let her tell her story:

"For ten years I had been getting heavier and heavier. I weighed 189 lbs. Just think of that! And I'm only 31. I was so worn-out that I couldn't do my housework—so nervous that I simply shrieked every time I was startled. My knees and legs were stiff with rheumatism. Terrible headaches distressed me so that I couldn't sleep nights. In fact, I was so miserable that I didn't care whether I lived or died. Seven bottles of Bonkura have given me energy and pep—really made a new person out of me—no more headaches, nervousness, or rheumatism. Best of all, I have lost 21 lbs.—from 189 to 168, in 4 weeks, and am still losing weight. Believe me, I have plenty of friends taking Bonkura now."

You may not lose 21 lbs. in 4 weeks. But if you have excess fat you will lose it in the famous "3 easy stages" as shown in the picture. Above all, Bonkura is safe—no thyroid or other dangerous drugs to jeopardize your health.

Simply purchase a bottle of Bonkura, the new Battle Creek treatment, at your druggist's today—unhealthy fat will quickly disappear and with it bloat, gas, and other stomach ills. You'll feel younger, yes, you'll look younger with those bright eyes, and that clear skin and superb figure which only perfect health can impart.
